An employee who believes that he or she has been the victim of harassment or any discrimination has the right to report this fact to the company's management, which will investigate whether there has been a breach of the Code of Ethics.

2. Non-discriminatory employment practices and the fight against bullying

Each of us has an important role to play in ensuring that all our colleagues are treated with dignity and respect.

As an equal opportunities employer, we do not discriminate in recruitment, selection, remuneration, training, assignment, promotion, termination of employment or other employment activities according to race, color, nationality, religion, gender, age, ethnic or national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, trade union membership or activity, or a person's current or former disability.

In the company VS-MONT, s.r.o diversity is seen as a competitive advantage that goes beyond differences of any kind and includes other characteristics such as different styles of thinking and working practices.

Employees are protected from harassment, coercion, intimidation, persecution, retaliation or www.vsmont.sk by discrimination for filing a complaint or assisting in the investigation. We do not tolerate harassment, bullying or illegal discrimination of any kind.

It is never acceptable to make unwelcome sexual advances or otherwise harass or bully any employee of VS-MONT, s.r.o., customer or supplier.

Also, jokes or depictions that denigrate specific groups are never acceptable (eg national or religious).

Our decision to employ people must be fair, impartial and fact-based.

3. Child and forced labor

Company VS-MONT, s. r. o. strictly refuses all forms of child and forced labor. We also expect our partners, contractors and subcontractors to respect and protect human rights, not to tolerate forced labor and to refuse and participate in or benefit from the use of child labor.

Employees of VS-MONT, s.r.o. as well as its business partners, suppliers and subcontractors must abide by the UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

They must not engage in human trafficking; destroy, conceal, seize or otherwise deny an employee access to his or her identity documents or other personal documents; use misleading or deceptive practices in the employment of employees, such as concealing or materially distorting key employment conditions, including pay, employee benefits, place of work, living conditions, housing and related costs; not to provide a written employment contract, employment agreement or other necessary working document in a language which the staff member understands and where the provision of such an agreement is required by law or contract. All employees must have employment contracts or be covered by agreements specifying terms and conditions of employment to make it clear that the employee is employed voluntarily. All suppliers, subcontractors, business partners of VS-MONT s.r.o. are obliged to perform the method of prevention and prevention of child labor, which is stated in the document as a separate appendix to this code of ethics.

4. Wages and working hours

Employees of VS-MONT, s.r.o they must not exceed the normal working hours stipulated by law and agreed in the employment contract.

At the same time VS-MONT, s.r.o. appropriately compensates for overtime, at least at the minimum level required by the State.

VS-MONT, s.r.o. complies with all applicable wage and working time laws and regulations, including those relating to the minimum wage, overtime, individual rates and other elements of financial and non-financial compensation, and will provide statutory benefits.

5. Respect for laws and competition rules

Ensuring compliance with the law and compliance with relevant legislative standards are a priority of VS-MONT, s.r.o. The company is therefore committed to supporting and creating the necessary conditions to enable compliance by providing appropriate training and relevant information to its employees.

It is the duty of each employee to become familiar with and subsequently comply with legislative standards related to the performance of his work.

The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. pays particular attention to compliance with competition law in all its trade agreements and negotiations with third parties. It does not participate in illegal price agreements or in unlawful attempts to control market influence between competitors. The Company shall not refuse to provide information or conceal, misrepresent or delay the submission of any information required by regulatory authorities to carry out their control activities and shall cooperate properly with them.

The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. avoids contact with competitors who could create even the appearance of inappropriate agreements, whether in person, in writing, by telephone or by e-mail. We are careful when writing and speaking to avoid any statements that could be misinterpreted as indicating an intention to act in an anti-competitive manner.

The employee must not engage in any activities that would be contrary to the competition rules and should prevent even any indication of a possible infringement. If an employee has any doubts before performing any activity, he or she may request the expert opinion of the company's management.

6. Protection of the good name of the company

Good reputation is a basic intangible asset and a valuable business value of a company VS-MONT, s.r.o., for which we are all responsible together and without distinction. Through its behavior, actions, speech and appearance, each employee not only represents himself, but also acts as a representative of VS-MONT, s.r.o.

For this reason, every employee cares about its reputation and the protection of its interests, and therefore behaves in such a way that he never damages its reputation.

7. Social responsibility

Social adoption of VS-MONT, s.r.o. is important in all areas of its competence. The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. is aware that its activities can also have a direct and indirect impact on the conditions, economic and social development of society.

For these reasons, VS-MONT, s.r.o. strives to ensure that its performance and activities are carried out in an environmentally sound manner, respecting local values and society as a whole. Employees also proceed in this spirit in the performance of their work activities.

Conflict of interest and anti-corruption activities

8. Corruption

Corruption is a negative social phenomenon and an obstacle to the good functioning of society. It results in increased costs, reduced economic efficiency, is a sign of a lack of solidarity and can jeopardize the dignity and integrity of those who bear the consequences against their will.

Therefore, VS-MONT, s.r.o. refuses and rejects corruption in any form, anytime, anywhere and under any circumstances.

In general, corruption refers to anti-social and illegal phenomena in the public and private sectors. This is a procedure which VS-MONT, s.r.o. does not tolerate. The company is convinced that success, sustainable results and growth will be achieved in fair competition thanks to its quality and valuable products and services.

VS-MONT, s.r.o. company fights with the will and determination of all employees at all levels and creates tools and conditions for a successful fight against corruption. Active corruption consists in conferring an advantage on another person with the intention of ensuring that that person acts or refrains from acting in breach of his obligations arising from his employment, profession, position or function, in particular to circumvent the decision-making mechanism (secure a permit, law, supply, trade, contract, etc.).

To make the company VS-MONT, s.r.o. it has maintained the trust of its partners, avoids all forms of corruption as well as activities that could be perceived as a form of corruption. It does not offer, promise or provide unlawful advantages in order to secure an advantage or to influence a decision in its favor.

Passive corruption consists in accepting an advantage whose consideration is to influence decision-making. The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. does not allow business decisions to influence the offers or promises of its partners in terms of providing illegal benefits, nor does it accept such offers. At the same time, it does not require illegal offers from its partners. It avoids giving the impression that business decisions could be influenced by such offers. None of the employees of VS-MONT, s.r.o. does not offer, promise or accept any illegal benefits that could subsequently influence business decisions. In the event of a promise, offer or request for bribes, employees are obliged to inform the company's management without undue delay through the communication channels designated for this purpose. The same applies if they become aware of facts indicative of corrupt behavior.

Company VS-MONT, s.r.o. also request zero tolerance from corruption from its partners, suppliers and subcontractors

9. Conflict of interests

A conflict of interest represents a situation in which the personal interests or activities of an employee inappropriately influence or interfere with or could interfere with his work activity or effective performance for the company VS-MONT, s.r.o., or if the employee or a member of his family receives unjustified personal benefits as a result of the employee's position in the company. Involvement of employees in activities in which there is a conflict of interest, resp. in which there may be a conflict of interest is not permitted.

Employees must behave in an ethical manner and do not seek or accept any personal benefit to the detriment of the company. The company has the right to investigate suspicious relationships and inappropriate behavior of its employees.

As it is not possible to list all situations or relationships that create a current or potential conflict of interest, and each specific situation must be assessed separately, all circumstances that could lead to a conflict of interest must be reported without delay.

If an employee finds a conflict of interest, he is obliged to inform his superior without undue delay and in a verifiable manner, who in accordance with the relevant procedures informs the company's management, which assesses whether there is a conflict of interest or not, taking into account the circumstances of the case. Failure by an employee to disclose circumstances that could give rise to a conflict of interest will in itself constitute a breach of these principles. Notification does not constitute a breach of the rules; on the contrary, it is a fulfillment of an obligation.

For example, a conflict of interest may arise in a situation where:

If an employee of VS-MONT, s.r.o. or a member of his family (spouse, parents, siblings or children of an employee or spouse) directly or indirectly:

is active in the same or a similar business activity as the activity which constitutes the principal activity of the company, or owns a controlling interest in an enterprise that is in a business relationship or seeks to establish a business relationship with the company, has a personal benefit from the sale, lease, purchase or other transactions in which the company acts as a participant.

During the employment relationship, the employee may not, without the prior written consent of VS-MONT, s.r.o. to carry out any gainful activity in accordance with the valid regulations, which is identical or similar with the subject of the company's activity. The term performance of a gainful activity means, in particular, an activity performed on the basis of an employment contract, a contract on work performed outside the employment relationship, or another contract or a business activity.

10. Gifts and rewards (gifts, favors, entertainment and other benefits)

The term gift represents any kind of benefit, such as object, attention, discount on the price of services, respectively. products, hospitality, reimbursement of travel expenses and / or reimbursement of accommodation, invitation to a sports or cultural event, invitation to a trade fair, conference or educational event without payment of a participation fee, promise to obtain employment, etc.

The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. provides only such gifts and favors that cannot give the impression that a certain behavior, business or other decision is expected in return, or that would be contrary to the law, business practice or ethical codes of the partners with which VS-MONT, s.r.o. business or other legal relationships.

Giving gifts, attentions, entertainment and other benefits ("gift")

The company or employee may provide only a gift that does not go beyond the normal understanding of business practice and is appropriate to the circumstances. There must be no suspicion that the gift is made with the aim of influencing the person who is currently deciding or will decide in the affairs of VS-MONT, s.r.o.

It is especially important to consider this circumstance in relation to public authorities in the Slovak Republic or abroad. Gifts in the form of cash, purchase vouchers, shares, bonds, commissions or other monetary values are not permitted under any circumstances. Promotional items that the company donates to its partners are perceived as promoting the image and its trade name. All gifts provided, with the exception of gifts of symbolic value, must be documented and approved in accordance with the procedures set out in the company's internal regulations.

Accepting gifts

Employees must never solicit donations. Employees may accept a gift only if in no case can there be a suspicion that the donor expects a certain behavior, resp. the decision of the donee as consideration. In case of doubt, especially if the donee is able to influence the business decision regarding the interests of the donor, the gift can be accepted only with the consent of the immediate superior. Gifts in the form of cash, purchase vouchers, shares, bonds, commissions or other monetary values are not permitted under any circumstances. An employee may accept a gift only if it does not go beyond the normal understanding of business practice and is appropriate to the circumstances. An employee shall not be permitted, in connection with his or her assignment, to be placed in a position where he or she will be required to remunerate a proven service or any other advantage offered, thereby impairing the objectivity and impartiality of his or her decisions.

If the employee subsequently finds that the gift violates the above rules, he informs his superior and returns the gift.

11. Sponsorship and donation

Sponsorship is a contractual cooperation with an organization or organizer of a social event, which will provide support for the company's communication and marketing goals for an agreed financial fee.

By donation we mean the provision of a monetary or non-monetary gift serving to support non-profit purposes, while neither the recipient nor any other third party provides any reciprocal performance.

The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. notes the existence of child labor in different countries. However, VS-MONT,s.r.o. does not accept child labor, and actively takes action against it. The complexity of the child labor problem requires a consistent, long-term effort to create broad-spectrum and sustained development activities in order to achieve our goal of ensuring that no materials and products supplied to VS-MONT, s.r.o were not products of child labor.

1. General principles

Company VS-MONT, s. r. o.. doesn't accept child labor.

The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. supported by the United Nations (UN) Convention on the Rights of the Child (1989) and this method of preventing child labor is established on the basis of this Convention, which states:

- "All actions concerning the child shall be fully in his or her best interests. "Article 3."
- The right of the child to protection against economic exploitation and against the performance of any work which may be dangerous to him or hinder his or her education or which would harm the child's health or his or her physical, mental, spiritual, moral or social development". article 32.1.

In addition, this code is established in cooperation with the International Labor Organization (ILO).

Minimum Age Convention No. 138 (1973). Under this Convention, the word "child" is defined as any person below the age of fifteen (15) years, unless local law provides for a higher age for work or compulsory schooling, in which case a higher age is counted.

However, if the local minimum in working age is set at fourteen (14) years in accordance with the exceptions for developing countries, a lower age will apply.

This code also contains the International Labor Organization Convention concerning the Worst Forms of Child Labor No. 182 (1999).

2. Implementation

All activities to prevent child labor must be carried out with the best interests of the child in mind. The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. requires all suppliers to recognize the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and to comply with national and international laws, regulations and rules in force in the country of production.

Suppliers are obliged to take appropriate measures to prevent any child labor at the place of production and from their subcontractors. If child labor occurs at any point in the production, VS-MONT, s.r.o. require the supplier to implement a plan of remedial measures. If the corrective action is not taken within the agreed period, or if there is a repeated violation, VS-MONT, s. r. o. all activities with the relevant supplier. The corrective action plan must meet the best interests of the child, ie respect the family and social situation and the level of education.

Care must be taken not only to shift child labor from one manufacturer to another, but also to more viable and sustainable alternatives for child development.

The Contractor must effectively communicate to all of his subcontractors, as well as to his own employees, the meaning and content of the "Child Labor Prevention Code" and ensure that all necessary measures are taken in accordance with it.

3. Young workers

The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. supports the legal employment of young workers. Young workers of legal working age have the right, up to the age of 18, to be protected from any kind of employment or work which, by its nature or the circumstances in which it is performed, could endanger their health, safety or morals.

The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. therefore requires all its suppliers to ensure that young workers are protected in accordance with the law, including measures to prevent hazardous work, night shifts and ensure minimum wages. Limits for working hours and overtime should be set taking into account the young age of the workers.

4. Labor force register

The supplier is obliged to keep documentation verifying the date of birth of each employee. In countries where such official documents are not available, the supplier must use appropriate assessment methods according to local customs and law.

5. Monitoring

All suppliers are obliged to notify VS-MONT,s.r.o. in all circumstances all production sites (including their subcontractors). Any undisclosed production centers found would violate this Code of Conduct.

The company VS-MONT,s.r.o. reserves the right to carry out unannounced visits at any time at all points of production (including subcontractors) of materials and goods intended for delivery to VS-MONT, s.r.o.

The company VS-MONT, s.r.o. further reserves the right to assign, at its own discretion, an independent third party to carry out inspections in order to ensure compliance with the "Method of Preventing Child Labor".
